

I am writing to request that the Indiana Law on telephone privacy not be changed. I received so many called from telemarketers before I signed up to be on the "no call" list. Since then, I have received only a few calls. I no longer have to tell people that I am not interesting in whatever they are selling. Please leave this law as it is!!! Thanks for your time.